FIRST FRIDAY MAIN LINE CELEBRATES THE ARTISTS OF TOMORROW!

We are so grateful for the creativity that lives within our local communities and would like to take this time to announce our student art show and give the artists of tomorrow a chance to shine like the rest of our beloved monthly artists!

We are inviting local students to participate in First Friday Main Line's November project: The First Friday Main Line Emerging Artists Show—Students will submit art work to be displayed in our FFML venue locations for the month of November!

This is an exciting opportunity for students, parents and the community to celebrate the artwork by local elementary, middle, high school and college students. The artwork will be displayed in the windows of businesses throughout the Main Line and advertised on our website at www.firstfridaymainline.com

Interested students will submit their art as follows:

- Any topic
- In any medium

- Artwork has to be mounted for hanging, framing is optional
- The artworks need to be dropped off, accompanied by the student's name, age, grade, and school, by October 30th at Past*Present*Future, 15 W. Lancaster Avenue, Ardmore, PA.
- You may contact us with any questions about this at info@firstfridaymainline.com or at 610-642-4040.

We look forward to you joining us to celebrate student art in the community on First Friday Main Line's November 6, 2009 Opening celebrations 6:00-9:00pm!
